1. Lay out the 12 quilt blocks as illustrated, in 5 rows. Odd numbered rows will have a background (A) square at the top and bottom of the row. Press seams in one direction. Each row will measure 10½" x 60½".

2. Trim the selvages off of the background (B) strips. Sew the strips together end to end and then cut (6) sashing strips, 2½" x 60½". These are labeled (B) in the quilt diagram.

3. Sew the sashing strips and rows together. Press toward the (B).

4. Trim the selvages off of the background (C) strips. Sew the strips together end to end and then cut (2) border strips, 6½" x 62½". These are labeled (C) in the quilt diagram.

5. Sew the (C) borders to the top/bottom of the quilt. Press toward (C).

6. Trim the selvages off of the border (D) strips. Sew the strips together and then cut (2) side border strips, 4½" x 72½". These are labeled (D) in the diagram. Cut (2) top/bottom border strips, 4½" x 70½". These are labeled (E) in the diagram.

7. Sew (D) to the sides of the quilt. Press away from the center. Sew (E) to the top/bottom of the quilt. Press away from the center. The finished quilt top will measure 70½" x 80½".

8. Prepare quilt backing using the backing rectangles. Create a quilt sandwich and quilt as desired. Bind using the binding strips.
